Stuart Rosenberg played my son and daughter's b'nai mitzvah, just as his band has played many of the simchas in our community over the past twenty years. The live music makes the event; there is no substitute. Stuart is a real mensch as well as professional. If you want the emes and a froelicha simcha, go with Stuart.

Stuart Rosenberg and his band played at our wedding of about 140 guests. They had a 7 piece band and were phenomenal. I cannot thank Stuart enough for making our wedding so special. I met my husband through music and Stuart made sure to incorporate every style of music to bring everyone "together". We had all 140 guests singing "My Oklahoma" with the band and it was followed by a Finnish Waltz that brought tears to everyone's eyes. They play everything from tango, waltzes, oldies to swingin' standards.

If you need a band for any event, check out Stuart Rosenberg's band... you will not be disappointed.

Stuart and his band played our wedding of about 200 guests. We were extremely impressed with the level of professionalism and enthusiasm he brought to both the planning process and musical performance. What really sets Stuart apart, however, is his ability to create a unique musical experience that fits with your vision for the event.

In our case (a Jewish wedding), we wanted a "bluegrass hora" followed by more traditional dance music. Stuart put together an amazing group of musicians that captured the spirit of our request perfectly. He seemed to know just the right song to play at just the right time. As a trained musician, I can say that the level of musicianship exhibited by the band was first-rate. At the same time, Stuart truly understands the role of a wedding band, which is to enhance the party atmosphere rather than overpower it. The many compliments we received on the music is a testament to Stuart's role in creating a truly memorable event.

But be warned! A Stuart Rosenberg hora will leave you and your guests gasping for air ... and sweating through your tie in my case!

Dear Stuart:

Now that all of the hubbub is over from The Spring Benefit, it's time to take a look back and enjoy the success of the event. More to the point of this letter, it's time to say a huge "thank-you" for the key role you and your orchestra played in making the evening truly a celebration.

When we started planning The Spring Benefit, Kathy and I agreed that we wanted it to be elegant and fun — in other words, a combination of black tie and boogie. Your performance could not have been better suited in matching our original goal. Of course, that you came through for us while your wife was in labor made a special impression on us.

So Stuart, you pretty much have some very big fans here at Connections for the Homeless — and I dare say that you gained many others from those who attended the benefit. By the way, Tim Weigel stayed longer than he expected just to sit and listen, and he said to me, "Gee, that's a great band!" He's right, and I know we want you back for next year. Hope we can make it work.

Sincerely,

David L. Myers
Executive Director

P.S. I've enclosed several returned envelopes from your mailing list. Thought you may want to know.

Dear Stuart,

What can we say? You + your band were magnificent! The rave reviews are still coming in. Thank you so much for helping to make our day so much fun. We feel so lucky to have snagged you! Please pass our gratitude on to your band members, also.

I hope our paths will cross again. Enjoy watching your daughter grow - it's such a special time for you.

Thanks again - we love you!

Thanks A Million!

Love,
Julie + Ron

Dear Stuart -

I wanted to thank you for arranging the perfect quartet for our June 9 wedding. Charlene was an absolute delight, and the group was very entertaining with the tangos, polkas, and special requests. I was so pleased to see our guests dancing and enjoying themselves, and very few left our reception early. I'm sure the music had a lot to do with it. It was a pleasure working with you, and I will happily pass your name along to friends and family in search of musical entertainment. Our wedding was a delight from start to finish, and I thank you, Charlene and your musicians for making it special. With warmest regards

Dear Stuart:

On behalf of Laura and me, I would like to thank you for the excellent job you and your band did at our wedding last Saturday. The music for both the ceremony and the reception was perfect. Numerous individuals commented on the excellence of the band during the course of the evening.

Laura and I both appreciated the transition from our tape to the band after your break. It was a nice touch.

Should you ever like a potential client to speak to a satisfied one, please do not hesitate to contact us for a recommendation. We could not have been more pleased with your performance.

Very truly yours,
